

I am very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. The anti-Kerry documentary is not "news."

The American public owns the airwaves. Sinclair uses these airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, not partisan politics.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
